

Membership Organisations

Lonmin participates in various local and international bodies that uphold corporate ethical responsibility and sustainable business practices, and we align our conduct with their recommendations and requirements. This includes voluntary membership in various external organisations, initiatives and social charters, including active participation in national and international mining organisations. Those of strategic importance are listed below.

CDP	Lonmin submitted a CDP report (formerly the Carbon Disclosure Project) disclosing our carbon emissions for the 11th consecutive year in 2017, based on our carbon emissions for financial year 2016. The CDP is an international, not-for-profit organisation that provides a global system for the measurement, disclosure, management and sharing of vital environmental information. In 2017, the Company submitted its fourth CDP water disclosure report, its third time for public disclosure.
Chamber of Mines	Lonmin's representation on the Chamber of Mines' Chief Executive Officer Forum and other committees allows for sharing experiences, successful strategies and leading practices that support safety, health and environmental improvements.
EITI	The Extractive Industries Transparency Initiative (EITI) is a global standard that promotes openness and accountable management of revenues from natural resources. Lonmin supports the EITI through our membership of the International Council on Mining and Metals (ICMM). As a matter of policy, the Company pays tax fully and properly in all jurisdictions in which it operates.
Environmental forums and associations	We participate in numerous water forums and associations, including those forums held with Rustenburg local municipality and Magalies Water on all water-related matters. Discussion points included water demand management initiatives by the mines and municipalities, and solutions to water supply in the short and medium term.
Health and safety structures	Lonmin participates in various industry organisations that focus on addressing safety and health concerns in the mining industry, or where safety and health are a key discussion point. Participation in these forums exposes the Company to shared learnings, best practice and peer performance benchmarks. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The Mining Industry Occupational Safety and Health (MOSH) programmes driven by the Chamber of Mines • The Health Policy Committee • The Mine Health and Safety Council (MHSC) • The Association of Mine Managers South Africa (AMMSA) • The Chief Executive Officer Zero Harm task team through the Chamber of Mines • The MHSC health and safety targets and milestones • The Bushveld Safety Forum • The Mine Ventilation Society of South Africa • The North West Tripartite Forum In addition, doctors in the Lonmin's health and wellness department belong to the Medical Mining Doctors Association.
ICMM	The goal of the ICMM is to improve sustainable development performance in the mining and metals industry. Lonmin is a member and active contributor of the ICMM, shares information with industry peers about our programmes to encourage mutual learning, and is indirectly involved in environmental advocacy on issues. Our 15 Sustainable Development Standards align with the ICMM's 10 principles and the requirements set out in the Position Statements. External assurance of our 2017 Sustainable Development Report is in line with the ICMM's Sustainable Development Framework: Assurance Procedure relating to subject matters 1 to 4.

IPA	Lonmin is a member of the International Platinum Group Metals Association (IPA), a non-profit association that represents mining, production and fabrication companies in the Platinum Group Metals industry. The organisation acts as a platform for discussion and information exchange between member companies and the outside world, and serves as an early warning system for the industry by monitoring legislation and industry-related topics.
NBI	The National Business Initiative (NBI) is a voluntary coalition of South African and multi-national companies, working towards sustainable growth and development in South Africa and shaping a sustainable future through responsible business action. The NBI is a global network partner of the World Business Council for Sustainable Development (WBCSD), the focal point of the United Nations Global Compact (UNGC) Local Network in South Africa and an implementation partner of the CEO Water Mandate, We Mean Business (WMB) and the CDP. The NBI's membership encompasses approximately 100 leading South African corporations and multi-nationals (inclusive of Lonmin). The NBI's membership includes a significant proportion of the country's leading listed companies, a number of the major state-owned enterprises and a variety of medium-sized firms.
PJDA	Lonmin is a member of the Platinum Jewellery Development Association (PJDA). The aim of this body is to promote the platinum brand within the jewellery market worldwide.
SPI	Lonmin is a sponsor of the SEDA Platinum Incubator (SPI) and an active board participant.
UNGC	The UNGC is a strategic policy initiative to help business align with 10 universally accepted principles in the areas of human rights, labour, environment and anti-corruption. Lonmin recognises the importance of these principles and endorses them across our business.
